Qualifications
Pursuing degree (BA/MA) in communications/marketing/journalism or related field; a demonstrated knowledge of the position responsibilities; strong interest in international affairs and/or global educations; ability to commit a minimum of 10 hours per week including 1-2 evening and/or weekend events per month.

To Apply
Applying is easy, just submit a cover letter describing your qualifications and interest the mission of WACLV; resume; your contact information for 2 professional references.

Email to:
Submit a cover letter to contact@waclv.org
Please include "Communications Internship Application" in the e-mail subject line.

The World Affairs Council of Las Vegas welcomes you to join us as an intern. Make connections and gain critical skills, work with community and governmental leaders.